

Our Stories

BLEU BOY

The stunningly handsome Bleu Boy has been with us since 2001, which makes him one of our longest-term residents... More!

Sponsor me now!

MERCEDES

On a clear Monday evening in November 2006, one of our volunteers finished her shift at the sanctuary, drove down the block and watched in horror as a cat was struck by the car in front of her... More!

Sponsor me now!

VALENTINO

Valentino arrived just after Christmas and what a gift he has proven to be... More!

Sponsor me now!

NOELLE

Noelle came to us when her owner, a private rescuer, passed away in the spring of 2007... More!

Sponsor me now!

EMMA

Ah, Emma. What can one say about a 15-year-old velvety, long-haired tortie beauty who talks with her eyes... More!

Sponsor me now!

CALEB

Before we met him, Caleb lived as most un-neutered feline males do--on the streets fighting for territory, food and a place in the world... More!

Sponsor me now!

MAY

May's story carries an all-too-common theme--aging cat abandoned at the local animal shelter... More!

Sponsor me now!

HENRY

We met Henry at a Best Friends adoption event in late 2005, when some people stopped by our booth and asked if we'd seen "the walrus"... More!

Sponsor me now!